R. SARAN, Deputy Secy.

(Department of Revenue)RESOLUTIONNew Delhi, the 3rd June 1958*

No. 4(59)/58-TPL.—The Government of India have had under consideration for some time the question of having an efficient system of direct taxation which will be sufficiently broad-based and will also be determined according to the capacity to pay. With a view to achieving this end, necessary legislation has been undertaken recently to impose taxes on wealth, expenditure and gifts and the exemption limit for payment of income-tax has also been reduced. The integration of the tax structure has thus been completed so far as legislation is concerned.

2. The entire work in connection with the assessment and collection of these taxes has fallen on the Income-tax Department. This Department was organised for the assessment and collection of income-tax only. In recent years, it has been expanded to take on the new burdens but it is necessary to ensure that the administrative organisation and procedures are such as would secure the basic objectives of the present taxation policy. It is equally important that the administrative machinery should be effective in checking evasion of taxes and function without giving any scope for public complaint.

3. With a view to advising them on these matters, the Government of India have decided to appoint a Committee. The Committee will consist of the following Members:

Chairman

- (1) Shri Mahavir Tyagi, M.P.

Members

- (2) Shri Rajendra Pratap Sinha, M.P.
- (3) Shri B. M. Gupte, formerly a Member of Parliament.
- (4) Shri G. P. Kapadia, President Indian Merchants Chamber, Bombay.
- (5) Shri K. S. Sundara Rajan, Member, Central Board of Revenue.

1. The terms of reference to the Committee will be—

"To advise Government on the administrative organisation and procedures necessary for implementing the integrated scheme of direct taxation with due regard to the need for eliminating tax evasion and avoiding inconvenience to the assesses".

5. The Secretary of the Committee will be Shri F. H. Vallabha, Commissioner of Income-tax, Bombay South. The headquarters of the Committee will be located at New Delhi. Government will provide such staff as the Committee may require. The Committee will commence its work as soon as possible and submit its report before the 31st March 1959.

ORDER: Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be communicated to all concerned.

Ordered also that this Resolution be published in the Gazette of India for general information.
